

MINUTES FOR
May 19th, 2025 Regular Meeting

Meeting called to order at 6:00 P.M., Monday, May 19th, 2025 by Nixon Hospital District Administrator Deborah M. Bustamente. Directors present Johnny Hewell, Jerry Parr, Nancy Pawelek, Terilyn Felty and Lisa H. Webb. Former Director Joe Hewell and Indigent Care Administrator Lena Saenz attended today's meeting.

* No Public Comments.

*Former Director Joe Hewell was presented a Certificate of Appreciation for his eight years of service as a Director.

*Appointed Officer Certificates were signed and issued to Jerry Parr, John Bird Hewell, Nancy Pawelek and Lisa H. Webb during this evenings meeting. Cindy Pieprzica and Jimmy Springs Appointed Officer Certificates will be issued at their next attended meeting. A current application for Director, S.O.S. Statement of Officer and Oath of Office was also signed.

*Lena Saenz the Indigent Care Administrator gave an overview of her job assignment to the Board of Directors. She now had five (5) active cases. Her fiscal year runs September 1 thru August 31.

Lena said the 3K cap on services is helpful but is nowhere near full payment for services. Administrator Bustamente informed the Board of her $300 overpayment on a patient recently. Director Parr and Lena said that in the past, invoices may be paid with the Boards knowledge and approval. Medical service are very expensive, She educated Board members of how hospitals are now conduct charity programs separately and much different from Indigent Care Programs. An example given was how Gonzales, Texas runs an Indigent Care Program but it is thru the hospital charity program and it is different from the IC program under the Nixon HD. Lena reports she works four (4) hours per week on Nixon referrals and earns $650 before taxes per month. She said a lot of her cases are worked over the telephone. She fills out the applications and can usually tell who will qualify depending where they work. She went on to say that often patients fail to return all of the necessary paperwork and it is certainly an issue. Lena is requesting a pay increase. Her last raise was over two (2) years ago.
